

Isaiah 61 MINISTRIES

Bibliography and Reading List

NOTE:

Beginning in early 2005 I began a program of self study in the area of spiritual warfare under the direction of Pastor Bernard Chan of Singapore and guided by the Holy Spirit. I was interested in learning from the lessons and experiences of others who had devoted substantial effort ministering in the areas of healing and deliverance. I tried to read as broadly as possible, including both Protestant and Catholic perspectives, historical and contemporary ministries, and proponents as well as critics of the deliverance ministry.

Below is a list of the books I studied to prepare for the founding of Isaiah 61 Ministries, as well as books discovered later and reviewed as part of on-going study. The list is intended to aid in the personal research of others, and does not constitute either a personal or ministry endorsement of any of the books, authors, or specific teachings found in these resources. I found, however, that most of the books were very useful and I learned something from every book I consulted, even if only how “not” to minister in this area.

Many of the items listed below are out of print, but most can still be located by second hand book sellers and on-line searches. The list is updated from time to time as we discover additional resources that we believe would be useful to others. Comments and recommendations for additional references to be reviewed and included in future editions of this bibliography are welcome.
